Elba Council Voices Support For Police Department

The Elba City Council voted unanimously Tuesday night to support the police in their investigation of any crime that happens in our city to the degree the chief feels they have gone as far as they can go or have apprehended the suspect and also the lab equipment or whatever we have to their advantage that they can use to help further their investigation.

In making the motion that included the above information, Councilman John W. Sharpless said, "I feel like they should be able to do this with the supervision of our chief of police without any reservations." Mayor Folsom agreed with him.

The motion on this was seconded by Councilman D. M. English and the vote was unanimous without any further discussion.

SHARPLESS PRESENTS MOTION

NEW HELP

Applications were reviewed to fill the upcoming vacancy due to the resignation of Rose Aaron. Finally, the mayor and council agreed for Councilman Sharpless and City Clerk Jack Prescott to look over the applications and select a replacement, noting that Sharpless knew all the applicants and Prescott was the one that had to work with them.

RUSSELL APPOINT

Mayor Robert Folsom appointed Councilman Mike Russell to look into the best material and the best price for covering the floor in the police station and the hallway.

RESOLUTION

The council approved an affirmative action resolution required by the Housing, Urban Development (HUD) for Elba to continue getting federal funds for community development.

POLICE CAR

reported that the police car purchased on emergency purchase was on hand and the equipment would be installed Wednesday.

Each councilman was presented with a recently completed copy of the city audit. The audit revealed that the city's revenue totaled $797,651.64 for the year, and that the income exceeded expenses by $61,732.89. A detailed study of the audit indicates that the financial condition of the city has greatly improved since the additional one-cent sales tax was imposed by the previous administration.

The sales tax receipts for the twelve-month period totaled $248,546.95, which was by far the largest source of revenue to the city. Revenue Sharing funds from the federal government were next, but way down the scale at $72,541. Pro-perty tax for the past year was $22,300.57 (this does not reflect any of the increased taxes due to the reappraisal).

It was reported the A.D.K. Teacher's Club wished to use City Hall for a meeting, and that they wanted to know if a fee would be charged. The council agreed that since it was an out-of-town club, a fee would be charged.

The council delayed action on a request for a pay raise for the Superintendent of the Water and Garbage Departments. The raise was to be discussed at the meeting, but was again tabled.

After a brief discussion, the council proposed an ordinance to provide water line to the property line of new homes and businesses, but to require the property owner to cover the expense of actual water hook-up.

The next council meeting is set for Tuesday night, January 31, at 7:00 p.m.

Summer Jobs Available At Ft. Rucker

Ft. Rucker is again participating in the federal government's annual summer hire program. Summer Jobs Announcement No. 414 for 1978 is available at the post's Civilian Personnel Office, Building 8605.

To be scheduled for the written test for clerical and administrative positions this summer, applications must be mailed to the Civil Service Commission Area Office, Southern Building, 805 Governor's Drive, S.W., Huntsville, Al. 35801, postmarked no later than Friday, Jan. 27.

Applications for other positions for the summer at Rucker will be received in the Civilian Personnel Office at the post between Feb. 1 and April 15. For further information, contact Neva Collins, telephone 255-2184.

In addition, there is a youth summer employment program for persons 16 through 21 years of age. This program is specifically designed to provide jobs for young people from low income families and for youths who need income from summer jobs in order to return to school in the fall.

Young people who are interested in these summer jobs should register with their local office of the State Employment Service.

Kinston Proposes Leash Law

The Kinston City Council met on Monday night, January 16, at City Hall, and agreed to adopt an ordinance that will require dog owners to keep their pets from roaming off the owner's property.

The council reported it had received numerous complaints from residents that dogs were roaming throughout the town at night and causing minor damage. If the proposed ordinance is passed, it will require all dog owners to keep their dogs on their property. The council will vote on the ordinance at their next scheduled meeting.

The meeting began at 7:00 p.m. with all members present except Mickey Weeks and Sara Bowden. Present at the meeting were Mayor Steve Hanks, Councilmen Houston Martin, Harold Rhodes and Dewey Adams, and City Clerk Peggy Cain.

Mayor Hanks called the meeting to order, while Councilman Adams led the group in prayer. City Clerk Peggy Cain read the minutes of the previous meeting and they were approved as read.

Bobby Courson addressed the council and offered to buy City property located behind the bank in downtown Kinston. Courson reported that he would pay all legal fees involved if the price on the property was reasonable. The Council decided to inspect the land to determine its value before giving a price.

It was reported the A.D.K. Teacher's Club wished to use City Hall for a meeting, and that they wanted to know if a fee would be charged. The council agreed that since it was an out-of-town club, a fee would be charged.

Two Injured In Three Car Accident

A three-car accident at the intersection of Simmons and Addison Streets last week resulted in minor injuries to two local residents and approximately $5000 in damage to the cars.

The wreck, which occurred at 12:57 p.m. on January 12, involved a 1976 Pontiac driven by Jeffrey Boutwell, a 1976 Ford driven by Frances Parr, and a 1978 Mercury driven by Jimmy Hornsby.

The wreck supposedly happened when Boutwell failed to stop at a traffic light and his car hit the vehicle driven by Parr. Mrs. Parr's car then caromed into Hornsby's vehicle, which was stopped at the light. Both the Boutwell car and the Parr vehicle crashed into a tree after the initial impact of the chain-reaction crash. Damage was estimated at $1500 to Boutwell's car, $1000 to Parr's vehicle and $550 to the car driven by Hornsby.

Boutwell was taken to the Elba General Hospital by the Rescue Squad, where he was admitted. Mrs. Parr was taken to the hospital by the police, where she was treated and released.

General Telephone To Ask Customers About Service

General Telephone Company announced last week that it is beginning a new program to survey the opinions of its customers in the Elba area about the quality of telephone service they are receiving.

Tommy Rorie, General's Oark District Service Manager, said that General Telephone has hired an independent research firm to conduct telephone interviews with area customers regarding four types of services: installation, operator assistance, repair, and dialing services (including billing).

The research firm will be calling a random selection of customers each month who have recently received one of the four types of service to get their opinion of the telephone company's performance.

"This survey program will improve our feedback from telephone customers and provide us with the objective information about the service they expect," Rorie said. "The survey results will help us insure that we are allocating our funds and resources to provide the best possible service to all our customers," he said.

Initial telephone interviews for the survey will be conducted in January and a new selection of customers will be called every month thereafter.

Local Farmers Head For Capitol

A group of Coffee County farmers left Monday for Washington, D.C. where they will do their part to present the plight of the American farmer to the federal officials in the nation's capital.

The group was to attend a welcome in the office of Senator Jim Allen as soon as they reached Washington, meet with other Senators and Representatives.

Brunson Tells Details Of Shooting

Richard Brunson was charged in a local shooting case here last week and it was reported in this newspaper with quotes from the statements the two shooting victims gave Elba police, Saturday.

Brunson related that he and his twelve-year-old daughter Jacquelyn, were on the way home from church when he stopped by "to get a little drink before lunch" from Allen Shipman. Robert Williams was there, Brunson said, and as Brunson walked up the drive, Williams "hit me in the stomach." Brunson said he told Williams, "Don't do that, Robert, my daughter is with me." He said that Williams hit him again and his daughter started crying. According to Brunson, Williams "then yanked my tie off before things settled down." Then, according to Brunson, Williams interrupted with "Shut up and let me handle this."

Brunson related that he was standing about five or six feet from Williams with the table between them and as Williams started walking toward him, "I shot down on the floor and didn't know I had hit anyone until Allen said I had done shot him."

Brunson continued by relating he said, "What" and Robert sat back down in the chair and his wife said for us to get out of the house with that mess, and I unloaded the gun and left."

Brunson noted that he went to the police station, but there were no police at the station - nothing but the radio operator. "I waited and Deputy Ray Norris came in and asked me what had happened," Brunson said. "I told him I had gotten into some trouble and to please follow me home with my car and then take me to jail, and he did," said Brunson. Brunson was in jail about two hours before bond was posted.

Brunson noted that the pistol was a twelve-shot automatic, fully loaded, and he was a good shot with any gun. "If I had wanted to, I didn't want to shoot anybody," Brunson said. He noted that Allen Shipman was honest and would tell the truth. "He didn't do anything," Brunson said. Brunson noted that several people had told him that Williams had had an argument with another local citizen the same day.

Brunson's daughter gave this newspaper the same details of the incident, and Brunson said he had two witnesses to most of the activities.

BRAINSTORMS Law Enforcement Is Everybody's Business

With Ferrin Cox

Representative Jimmy Holley has an idea that it ain't fair for us in Coffee County to begin paying the federal court-mandated higher property taxes before the other 66 counties start. He has written the Alabama Attorney General on the matter and requested an official opinion. None of us wants to pay higher taxes unless we have to, but I am afraid Jimmy is fighting a lost cause - we have already paid the higher tax and the book-keeping to refund would be out of this world. Then, by next year, the whole state will probably be on the new rate and it just means pay and pay and pay some more.

The Coffee County Commissioners are getting a lot of advice on how they should solve the eternal debate over the location of the county courthouse. They hold discussion meetings and almost reach a decision, then someone talks to one of the commissioners and this commissioner heads off in another direction. After this has happened several times, the entire county governing body is getting confused and about ready to drop the matter back in the laps of Representative Holley and Senator Miller. Today I can't fault the commissioners because they didn't create a single one of the problems that are complicating the matter today and the only legal responsibility they have in the matter is to pay the bills!

Hubert Humphrey never made it to the office of President of the United States, and this was fine with me because his political ideas were very different from mine. However, in the last few months I have become a fan of the former vice-president who died recently. He knew he was dying but he kept fighting and kept working for our country. He died with more dignity than many of us have living - Humphrey was the closest thing we have had to a statesman from the old school than we have had in many a year!

Watching and reading about Chief Justice Torbert's appeal to the Alabama Legislature in behalf of the unified court system firms up my opinion that former Chief Justice Harold Heflin will not seek the Senate office being held now by John Sparkman. Heflin has several times postponed an announcement in the case, but my prediction is he will not run because of the bad publicity he would surely get from the new court system. That is my opinion and also the word from the expert Alabama political watchers.

Government agencies have stopped pipe and cigar smokers from smoking on airplanes, but not cigarette smokers! Maybe I am a little biased due to the many years I smoked a pipe myself, but - it ain't right to stop pipe and cigars without the stopping-cigarettes. Now, since I have quit smoking completely, it suits me for the government to hide behind the claim of smoking being dangerous to your health and stop it all, but then they would have a right to tell me how much I could eat or how much salt to put on my peas (regardless of my taste buds). They could also assign me a time to go to bed and a time to get up. Once we crack the door, we are in trouble!

Bob Folsom done good! We don't hesitate to be critical of Mayor Robert Folsom when he messes up his job as mayor. Therefore, we should not hesitate to pat him on the back when he does well. Tuesday night at the council meeting, Bob did well. He conducted the meeting properly, allowed the council to make some decisions that I know he personally disagreed with, but he let the majority rule and promised to see that the decisions were carried out. He also told Folsom that if he would conduct the council meetings and day-to-day city business in that manner, I would defend him to the death; but if he hesitated, I would be helping throw the stones! Bob said he wanted to carry out the wishes of the council within the limits of the law, and by golly, that is all any of us want (that is, as long as the council is headed in the right direction). Thanks, Bob.

Coffee County Sheriff Neil Grantham is pictured above presenting a check for $500 to Mr. Jerry Ferguson, a staff member of the Alabama Sheriff's Boys and Girls Ranch. The check, given by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dorsey of Elba, will be used to help finance the Southeast Boys and Girls Ranch in Clayton, Alabama.

WARRANTIES - WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW
Should you repair an appliance yourself, while it is under warranty?
No, point out the editors of Reader's Digest, who have compiled a "Fix-It-Yourself Manual" with the help of experts in every field. This money-saving book, available at bookstores, not only tells about warranties but how to safely fix 1,001 things that can go wrong around the house.
Yet if you attempt to repair an appliance yourself while the warranty is in effect, this will almost always automatically cancel the manufacturer's or retailer's obligations.
Under a 1975 law intended to protect consumers against deceptive warranty practices, inferior products and poor service - no manufacturer or retailer is forced to provide a written warranty. But this is no way prevents a dissatisfied customer from complaining about a failed product, trying to get a replacement, or taking the offending producer or retailer to court.

CONFIDENCE GAMES PEOPLE PLAY

Down through the years, since before the snake oil salesman, Americans have been preoccupied to think of criminals in stereotypes. "Bad people," we were told, are always swarthy, poorly dressed, shifty-eyed, but "good people" dress neatly, are bright and cheerful and look you in the eye. We have all recognized them and confidently proclaimed, "He has an honest face."

Unfortunately, this easy evaluation formula never really held true and, while it was a comforting way to bring up children, adults today - particularly the elderly - must face the fact that criminals come in a variety of characteristic packages.
One scientifically conducted survey, taken in strict confidence, asked personal questions of 100 "average" people, mainly white collar workers. Results showed only 1% were innocent of a group of crimes that could, if known to authorities, put the remaining 99% behind bars for a year or more. Nine were in jail at the time of interview, and none of the group had ever been arrested for other than traffic violations.
In another study, "good" college students were found to be guilty of only slightly less crime than "bad" juvenile delinquents who were serving time in various punishment or treatment institutions.

Surprisingly, among the millions of felonies reported to authorities, only 1% of the guilty are captured, tried, convicted and jailed! Evidently, wariness is a primary necessity among the law-abiding.
Confidence games are abundant over the nation. Perpetrators come up with something new almost daily, and it seems the elderly are the most vulnerable, probably because they grew up in an era when people thought word was bond. In a town in the mid-west, a 75-year-old woman drew $5,000 from her savings bank. She offered to share it with the victim if $5,000 were given as security for holding the find, for dividing later. When opened, of course, the bag contained only newspaper cut to the size of currency.

In an eastern city, a man received a telephone call purportedly from his bank, asking that he withdraw all his money as it was feared a bank employee was stealing from his account. If he would cooperate and keep the cash at home until the dishonest clerk was caught, he could then return the money to the bank without losing interest for the brief withdrawal period. Not bothering to verify, the victim withdrew $25,000, kept it at home until the caller came to his door. The culprit, he was told, had been apprehended, and the neatly dressed man had been sent to "pick up the money and return it to deposit, to save him the trouble of having to go back downtown." The victim cheerfully, blindly gave the con-man his life savings, with nothing to show for it but a phony receipt. Unbelievable? Things like this happen somewhere almost every day.

Foolish as it may seem, people don't always report being victims of confidence games. Many are too embarrassed to admit they allowed themselves to be taken in, so they remain silent, chalking their losses to experience. While that may save a bent ego, it does nothing toward apprehending con artists. Few stop their activities almost every day.

SUPPORT THE TIGERS TONIGHT IN THE S.A.C. TOURNEY

ELBA VS. ANDALUSIA

8:30 AT THE LURLEEN B. WALLACE GYM

Views From The Pressbox

By: Ricky Mulare, Sports Editor

The Elba Tigers' record dipped to 2 wins and 11 losses last week when they lost to Troy, and their schedule isn't going to get much easier!

I hate to sound like a broken record, but even though Elba lost, they didn't play that bad. Troy has a very good team, as is evident by their 12-2 record, and the Trojans simply had better players than Elba. Elba did hold Jerry Richards to only 2 points, quite a feat when you consider Richards is the top scorer in the S.A.C.

I'm not making excuses for the Tigers' poor record, but they have lost to some pretty good teams. Elba's losses have come to Opp, twice, who has a 10-5 record; Laverne, twice, with a 10-3 record; Troy, twice, with a 12-2 record; New Brockton, once, with an 11-1 record; Enterprise, twice, a 4A power with a 9-5 record; Greenville, who has an 8-6 chart and Zion Chapel with an 11-3 state. Add up the records of the teams we've lost to, and you get a total of 71 wins and 25 losses. Not bad!

Teams left on the Elba schedule include Opp, Ufaula, Andalusia and New Brockton, all of whom have very good squads. Come on, Tigers - get together and WIN!

The Elba Club is sponsoring a National Free-Throw Shooting Contest for youngsters, and the winner of this district was 10-year-old Blake Purvis of Coffee Springs.

Blake is, as I'm sure you've already guessed, the son of Coach Wayne Purvis of Coffee Springs. Coach Purvis is the World Champion Free-Throw Shooter!

Young Purvis hit 20 of 25 free-throws at the district meet in Auburn, and will not advance to the State finals this Saturday at Pascaloosa. Good luck, Blake!

Dothan's 6-7 Carl Mitchell had quite a weekend as he led the Tigers to two wins. In the games, Mitchell scored a total of 73 points and grabbed 46 rebounds. Mitchell broke his hand early in the season while dunking a ball, but the hand is now well and Dothan's opponents better watch out!

It appears that the basketball program in Elba has help on the way. This year the school sponsors five teams, Varsity, Junior Varsity, Junior High, 8th grade and 7th grade, and the total program should yield dividends in the very near future.

I watched the Super Bowl on TV Sunday and was disappointed in the way Denver played. I wanted the Broncos to win, but I'll have to admit I don't think they would. After watching the game, I think Denver may have won if they hadn't played so bad!

New Brockton's record slipped to 11-1 last week, but the loss didn't come on the court. The Gamecocks forfeited a game to Coffee Springs as a result of their hard feelings which occurred during football season, and I can't understand why!

New Brockton's football team was soundly beaten by Coffee Springs in football, but the Gamecocks were unbeaten in basketball and could probably have beaten the Bears. Oh, well, the Gamecocks are still unbeaten on the court and I'm still picking them to make the state tourney.

TROY TROJANS

OVERPOWER

TIGERS 64-38

The Troy Trojans exploded for 31 points in the final quarter to overcome a gallant Elba effort as they defeated the Tigers 64-38 last Thursday night in Elba.

The win capped Troy's record to 11-2, while the loss lowered Elba's chart to 2-11. The Trojans attempted to slow down the Trojans' high-powered offense early in the game by employing a delay offense of their own. Elba played deliberately in the opening stanza and after one quarter trailed 12-6.

The Trojans continued to slow down the pace in the second quarter, and succeeded in holding Troy to only 12 points. However, the Elba offense couldn't muster any attack and at the half Troy led 24-10.

Elba's game plan worked to perfection in the third period as the Trojans continued to outpace the Trojans.

Mrs. David Stokes Entertains Music Club

The Music Lovers Club met in the home of Mrs. David Stokes on Thursday afternoon, January 12, 1978. Mrs. Bob Lee was co-hostess.

The guests were served delicious ribbon pimiento and cheese sandwiches, congealed egg salad, nuts, butterfinger cookies and coffee while they were assembled in the inviting atmosphere of her glowing fireplace.

Those present were Mrs. Kenneth Strong, Mrs. E. M. Warr, Mrs. Jimmy Ramsey, Mrs. Luna Delle Ringo, Mrs. Lister Brunson, Mrs. David Stokes, Mrs. Bob Lee, Mrs. Mark Holt, Mrs. G. L. Collier, Mrs. Lamar Vaughan, Mrs. Kimmie Ham, Miss Jeanette Garrett and Mr. and Mrs. John D. Lowery.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. G. L. Collier. The guests were welcomed and the usual business was transacted.

Mrs. Warr gave the devotion. Inspiration was drawn from the life of Joseph Scriven, a modest Irishman who lived and died in Lake Erie, Canada. He was a carpenter who devoted his life to the poor. A poem which he wrote was put to music and a popular religious song was born, "What A Friend We Have In Jesus."

Mrs. Sara Strong presented Miss Jeanette Garrett who gave a thorough and interesting program on the music of Austria, Hungary, Poland and Rumania. The fact that Miss Garrett had recently visited these countries on a guided tour made it even more interesting. She stated that Austria, Hungary and Poland have produced some of the world's greatest musicians.

Among the many states in Vienna, Austria, of musicians who had lived in this "City of Music," the status of Johann Strauss, Jr., playing his violin was most conspicuous, she said.

Another great musician who was Beethoven, who in his later life was honored as a leading citizen of Vienna.

Albert Berg was another Viennese who, under Schoenberg, helped to devise the 12-tone system. Anton Bruckner who also lived in Vienna was mentioned as the one who composed "Mass in F Minor." Haydn, Mozart and Beethoven were the three great composers of Europe between 1700 and 1810. Haydn wrote the "Emperor's Hymn," the national anthem of Austria.

Gustav Mahler and Franz Schubert were also described in Miss Garrett's elaborate paper as composers of Vienna who wrote on a large scale.

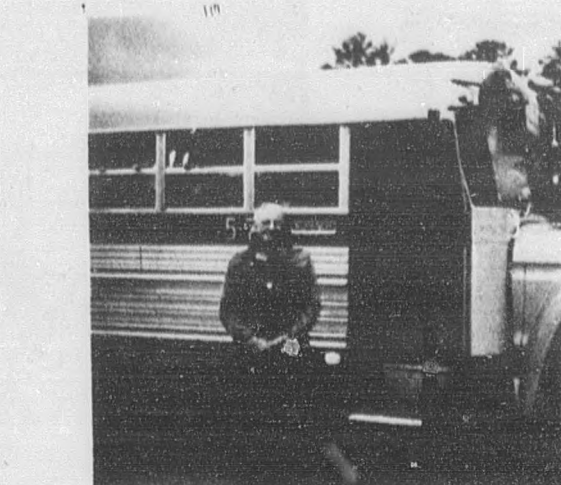

In Hungary, Bartok is described as an outstanding modern composer who wrote not only large orchestral works and string quartets but also works for young musicians and students.

Franz Liszt, the early Romantic composer and teacher was the greatest of piano virtuosos, and was known for his Hungarian Rhapsodies.

In Poland, Chopin was considered to be one of the greatest composers. He was known as the poet of the piano. He left Poland at the age of 20 and never returned, but during the remainder of his life he filled his music with love for his native Poland.

The program was concluded with piano solos by Mrs. Ella Kato Han, who played "Pavane" by Beethoven, and Opus 9 and No. 1 in B Flat of Chopin's "Nocturne."

The next meeting will be held on February 9 in the Elba Elementary School auditorium.

H.H. Jones Retires From Driving School Bus

Mr. H. H. Jones has retired as school bus driver for the Elba City School System after 10 1/2 years of service.

In addition to his daily school route, Mr. Jones drove the bus to carry band members to football games and band contests.

Although he had to drive in hazardous weather conditions, for instance the snow of February, 1973, and Hurricane Eloise, he retires with an accident-free record.

Mr. Jones says he vividly remembers Hurricane Eloise. He had gone on his route that morning and his safe return looked doubtful at times.

Mr. Jones related that he enjoyed driving the bus and seeing the children so much, that retirement was a hard decision for him to make.

Only A Visitor

He came and made my life happy. He filled my heart with love. He made my day as bright as the sun that shines above. I was beginning to believe Everything he had to say, Nothing could ever go wrong. It would all work out okay. It was so perfect for a while I thought it would never end. Until it seemed something was happening. He suddenly began to pretend. I was starting to realize He was slowly slipping away. But there was nothing to be said That could make his love stay. It was almost like a dream, But what he was trying to say Was "It's been nice knowing you, I hope to see you someday."

Only A Visitor

He came and made my life happy. He filled my heart with love. He made my day as bright as the sun that shines above. I was beginning to believe Everything he had to say, Nothing could ever go wrong. It would all work out okay. It was so perfect for a while I thought it would never end. Until it seemed something was happening. He suddenly began to pretend. I was starting to realize He was slowly slipping away. But there was nothing to be said That could make his love stay. It was almost like a dream, But what he was trying to say Was "It's been nice knowing you, I hope to see you someday."

The Pastor's Corner

By JAMES BROCK
Westside Bapt. Church

Generally speaking, peace is usually thought of in terms of the absence of conflict. Naturally, violence is the antithesis of peace, but the mere absence of outward violence does not necessarily indicate peace. Real peace is a creative force that takes the initiative in a reconciling process which produces well-being on the part of individuals, groups, and even nations. In recent years we have become accustomed to hearing of "peace initiatives" in the troubled spots of the world. Perhaps it is time that Christians considered the importance of their God-given position in the peace-making process.

Obviously, God took the initiative in seeking peace between Himself and sinful men. "While we were yet sinners, Christ loved us and gave Himself for us." In these words, the scriptures recognize that salvation begins in the purpose of God to provide some kind of deliverance for sinful man. God could not wait until man made the first move, because in his sinful state, man is not capable of such a move in the direction of God. And so, in the due process of time, God made Himself known to man in the form of a Son who gave himself in order that man might have salvation. In this "peace initiative," God clearly indicated to sinners that faith is both inspired by God and directed toward God. In response to the revelation of God to man, individuals can come into right relationship to Him and find the peace which He promises.

Furthermore, Jesus indicated that His followers, those who have made peace with God through a redemptive experience with Jesus, are to be presented at the hearing. Citizens will be asked to review and approve both the application for financial assistance and the Housing Assistance Plan.

Card Of Thanks
Loyd and I would like to take this opportunity to say thank you to our many, many friends and relatives for the many beautiful flowers and cards sent, calls made, the meals that were prepared, and the many love gifts that were given us during Loyd's lengthy stay in the hospital. Card Of Thanks
Loyd and I would like to take this opportunity to say thank you to our many, many friends and relatives for the many beautiful flowers and cards sent, calls made, the meals that were prepared, and the many love gifts that were given us during Loyd's lengthy stay in the hospital. But most of all, for the many, many prayers that were offered in our behalf. We know that prayer is the reason for the great progress made in our case. May God bless each of you in a very special way.

WALK TO LOSE WEIGHT
Want to lose ten pounds in the next year? One way you can do it is to walk an extra mile every day. The American Medical Association points out that a walk of just an extra mile per day for 365 days is a simple, pleasant device for shedding an extra pound of fat. In a year this would mount up to about ten pounds. The extra mile means just that - a mile of walking in addition to the customary walking you now do each day. And walking at a brisk clip, not just sauntering along. And without increasing your present food intake.

Once regarded as a major factor in losing weight, physical activity was later accorded less importance. It was recalled that considerable effort was required to shed even one pound of extra tissue. Would-be reducers found comfort in some expert opinion that calories expended through exercise would be immediately replaced, due to automatic increase in appetite.

Fortunately for fitness as well as for fatness, exercise has been restored to grace and enjoys respectability. It still keeps calorie control permanently, but exercise helps expend calories; within the usual range of activity, it need not stimulate appetite excessively. The energy output required to offset a pound of fat is approximately 3,500 calories, but the weight need not be lost all at once.

Instead of the exhausting, often impossible, 36-mile hike within a span of hours, a walk of just one extra mile a day for 365 days will get rid of that extra pound. Weight gain usually
